

Applying for an exhibition at Sirius Arts Centre

Submissions are now open for the next exhibition programme (January to December 2020) and will be accepted until Friday 17 May 2019 at 5pm.

Artists and curators are chosen for exhibitions and projects in one of two ways - by invitation and by open submission. It is estimated that there will be a small number of slots for solo or group projects in 2020 that will be chosen from the open submission process.

Please read the following information before you apply for the open submission:

1. Applications are considered for both solo and group projects.
2. The term and dates of a project will be agreed between the artist(s) and the Director of Sirius Arts Centre.
3. Sirius Arts Centre offers remuneration to artists exhibiting in accordance with the Arts Council guidelines. However, given the changes in funding streams for the arts in Ireland, it is recommended that, if accepted - artists apply to their own Arts Councils and local authorities to source additional funding towards travel, transportation and production costs.
4. There is no fee to apply for an exhibition.

Please include in your application:

1. An up-to-date CV, no more than one page in pdf format.
2. A short artist's statement, no more than 300 words in pdf format..
3. A written proposal for exhibition applications, which also includes relevant installation details, any additional events, workshops or talks where relevant and any other information that you feel relevant to your application, no more than 500 words in pdf format.
4. A maximum of eight images of your work (in jpeg format, no larger than 2mb each) and/or up to
