Applying for an exhibition at Sirius Arts Centre

Submissions are now open for the next exhibition programme (January to December 2017) and will be accepted until Monday 13 June 2016 at 5pm.

Artists and curators are chosen for exhibitions and projects in one of two ways - by invitation and by open submission. It is estimated that there will be a small number of slots for solo or group projects in 2017 that will be chosen from open submission applications.

Please read the following information before you apply for the open submission:

1. Applications are considered for both solo and group projects.
2. The term of a project will be agreed between the artist(s) and the director of Sirius Arts Centre.
3. Sirius Arts Centre offers remuneration to artists exhibiting in accordance with the Arts Council guidelines. However, given the changes in funding streams for the arts in Ireland, it is recommended that, if accepted - artists apply to their own Arts Councils and local authorities to source funding for travel, transportation and production costs.
4. There is no fee to apply for an exhibition.

Please include in your application:

1. An up-to-date CV, no more than one page.
2. A short artist's statement, no more than one page.
3. A written proposal for exhibition applications, which also includes installation details, any additional events, workshops or talks where relevant and any other information that you feel relevant to your application, no more than 500 words.
4. A maximum of ten images of your work (jpegs no larger than 2mb each) or links to

Sirius Arts Centre Board of Directors:

Chairman: Derry O'Driscoll, Secretary: Richard O'Shea, Glen Barry, Eddie English, Declan Scott, Danny McCarthy, Phil Curtin, Harry Moore, Michael McCarthy, Mary Stack, Sally Donegan

video/audio files. Please do not send large files by email - use Dropbox or Wetransfer. Please make sure that your files can be viewed on both PC and MAC formats.

4. A titles list of images with relevant information.

All applications will be reviewed by the curatorial panel and the applicant will be notified as soon as possible after the deadline. Applications can be sent by email. Please send applications by Monday 13th June 2016 to:

info@siriusartscentre.ie (with the subject heading 'Submissions 2017')

Please note - applications that exceed the required documentation will not be accepted.

Applications will not be accepted after the deadline.
